

Buy Hydroponics with Bitcoins: EastWestHydro.com Becomes First Major Hydroponics Supplier to Accept Anonymous Digital Currency

Privacy concerns among American citizens, and increasingly among those of other nations, are becoming a popular topic again. As the White House, the NSA, and a number of tech firms suffer through the greatest PR nightmare in recent memory, Americans are beginning to get Bitcoins and other new crypto tools in order to secure their communications and transactions.

Cryptocurrencies like Bitcoin may be more transformative than you think -- they may end or severely limit government surveillance, and may even signal the end of credit cards as we know them. You can already buy just about anything with Bitcoins, and as of today you can even buy hydroponics with Bitcoins. In a big vote of confidence, retailers like EastWestHydro.com are choosing to accept Bitcoins, the controversial new cryptocurrency.

Bitcoins are an alternative, digital cryptocurrency that were first developed in 2008. The recent popularity of Bitcoins is partly due to the fact that they are based on an open source cryptographic protocol which allows for decentralized peer-to-peer transactions. In other words, Bitcoins allow people and organizations to instantly, anonymously, and securely transfer money across borders, averting financial intermediaries and governmental authorities and doing so at less cost than traditional payment schemes.

EastWestHydro.com has long been a stand-out in an industry plagued by poor customer service, unreliable order fulfillment, and shoddy off-brand products. Recognizing the opportunity to outshine the competition, the folks at EastWestHydro.com built their business on a foundation of great customer service, and innovation. Essentially: give the customer what they want, how they want it, as quickly as possible, and at the best price. Choosing to accept Bitcoin as an alternative payment method is not only a logical extension of their business model, but it's also a commitment to freedom of choice and anonymity in an industry which gets more than its share of scrutiny from authorities.

If any of this has piqued your interest, please consider reading up on the Bitcoin movement as well as shopping at one of the thousands of Bitcoin-friendly merchants like EastWestHydro.com.
