The QUEST RDS 10 is the perfect dehumidifier for the grower wanting flexibility and convenience. Whether you are a grower looking for a little extra capacity at the most critical peaks of the grow cycle, a temporary supplemental dryer, or the flexibility of a product that can be moved to various rooms when needed, the QUEST RDS 10 is the product for you.

The QUEST RDS 10 is constructed of the highest quality components, and is protected by a heavy duty ROTO case. Compared to other products, made of cheap plastic, the QUEST RDS 10 is designed and built to last. Included with every QUEST RDS 10 is a high capacity pleated filter. The superior filtration of the RDS 10 is designed to capture mold, spores, pollen, and dust – effectively cleansing the room of dangerous particles. When it comes to keeping your plants safe from mold, mildew, bacteria, and disease, accept no substitute.
